Dear Ms Mullins,

I am addressing these lines to you to follow up my letter of 1 October 2014 - please see the enclosed photocopy - in which I have enquired about the status of my Transactor Plus account 1919571825 at your branch of Nedbank. That letter was posted to the address of your branch of Nedbank on 7 October 2014 in the registered mail item RT077324895DE and accepted there by your colleague Tj Tj Radebe on 8 October 2014. Photocopies of the paper records and prints of the online records of this mail transmission are also enclosed with this letter.

It is my hope that you would be so good to provide to me the requested information in the coming days. Looking forward to receiving your valued communication, I remain, for now, with thanks for your friendly attention.

Yours sincerely, I. Porada

1 October 2014

Dear Madam, dear Sir,

I should be grateful if you would kindly let me know whether my Transactor Plus account 1919571825 is currently still being administered at the Norwood branch of Nedbank. A Mr Peter Gottfried Otto of Somerset West, Western Cape, may wish to make a deposit into my Transactor Plus account 1919571825. In that event, if Mr Otto should enquire whether a deposit can be received for my Transactor Plus account 1919571825, you may give him that information.

Further, please also inform me of the present balance on my Transactor Plus account 1919571825. In addition, I would like to know whether it will in the future be possible for me to give instructions for any funds on my Transactor Plus account 1919571825 to be remitted to other bank accounts in South Africa or elsewhere.

I look forward to receiving that information from you. In the meantime I remain with many thanks for your friendly attention and effort.

Yours sincerely
